Dear Readers of St Anastasia Parish,

Enclosed you will find the Summer 2009 Schedule. A big thank you to everyone for reading so faithfully here at St Anastasia Parish.

I have two reminders:

- Please come at least twenty minutes early in case there is something special you need to do.

- If you are doing the commentary part, please be ready to read the Prayers of the Faithful. Please come forward while the Creed is being prayed. There should be no pause between the Creed and the Prayers of the Faithful.

Thank you for your dedication and service to our parish.

Sincerely,

Dear Lectors,

Here is your new schedule that runs from January 2008 to May 2008. Currently we have 8 lectors at the 4:30pm Mass, 13 at the 7:30am Mass and 8 at the 11am Mass. If anyone who currently reads at the 7:30am Mass would like to switch to either of the other two Masses, just let me know.

We are also making an IMPORTANT CHANGE in the entrance procession. As soon as the Lector gets to the front of the church they should put the book they are carrying in the stand on the altar. Then proceed to the front of the altar and line up with the celebrant and altar servers. When the priest genuflects, the lector (if they are able) also genuflects. Then you can proceed to your pew for the beginning of Mass.

Here are some reminders:

- ✚ Please be at least twenty minutes early for Mass
- ✚ Please get a substitute if you are not able to read at your scheduled time
- ✚ If you are the commentator, please come forward during the Creed for the Prayers of the Faithful. There shouldn't be a pause between the Creed and the Prayers of the Faithful.

If you have any questions don't hesitate to give me a call. I would also like to thank everyone for taking part in this important ministry of proclaiming God's word.
