This Week's Area Calendar of Events

Welcome back to St Anastasia and St Boniface! The world looks a lot different than it did the last time we met here. Hopefully you received a letter last week informing you of the changes you will be seeing in our public celebration of the Mass. We're sure it will be a bit bumpy the first week or so as we try to get all the snags worked out. Please be patient a little longer and remember: We're here—together—in worship! Just what we have been praying for!

It is still possible that changes will have to be made to our schedule and practices. We will keep the website information, and the parking lot's electronic board, as current as we can. You are always welcome to call the office with questions.

Channel 10, the Hutchinson cable access channel, airs our weekend mass at 7:30am on Sundays and 7pm on Wednesdays. It is also available on Mediacom 107.3

The Kids' Depot is still operating with its regular hours. Please contact them at 484-4869 with your child care needs. The parish office is open 8am-4:30pm Monday—Friday, but with minimal staffing. Please leave a message on the voicemail or send us an email. Someone will get back to you.

For emergencies please call Fr Paul's cell: 507-829-0965.

Parish & Community Events

Pastor's Corner

This past week we celebrated the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples at Pentecost. It is not just a Christian celebration but a Jewish one as well. If you go back and read the Old Testament, you will discover that Pentecost was one of the Jewish feast days. However, they didn't call it Pentecost. That's the Greek name. The Jews called it the Feast of Harvest or the Feast of Weeks. It was the celebration of the beginning of the early weeks of harvest. In Palestine, there were two harvests each year. The early harvest came during the months of May and June; the final harvest came in the Fall. Pentecost was the celebration of the beginning of the early wheat harvest, which meant that Pentecost always fell sometime during the middle of the month of May, or sometimes in early June. In short, Pentecost in the time of the Apostles was a great and grand harvest celebration. The streets of Jerusalem were clogged with thousands of pilgrims who had come from every point of the compass to celebrate the goodness of God and the bringing in of the wheat harvest.

The celebration of Pentecost for Christians is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the beginning of the Church. In this celebration we pray: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth." It is a simple prayer; however, after these short five months of this year, we ought to be praying it over and over again. We have experienced in such a short time overwhelming issues and concerns: the pandemic of Covid 19, which has led to isolation, closure of schools, work places and other institution; death; economic devastation, loss of job and income; social issues of suicide, alcoholism, food shortages, racial inequalities, physical and emotional abuse, fear and anxiety; health care workers and other front line individuals who have been put at grave risk; and yes, good issues of family renewal, concern for neighbor, and unity of community.

We have also seen and experienced the death of a black man on the streets of Minneapolis, the cry for justice again from our disenfranchised communities, riots, troops in our streets, and civil disobedience.

It is well that we place trust in our leaders that long for the common good of all, to make our voice known in hope, to want financial security and prosperity for our land, to have family and community values that successfully nurture our children and young into meaningful life.

As a society we have established many institutions that have sought to make this real: churches and houses of worship, government, business, technology, and many others. However, core values may have been side stepped and led us into what might be termed simply "sin," and we have forgotten our way, our Creator, Savior, and Sanctifier; and whom to whom we shall answer one day. Trust in so many things that have been mentioned, believe in tomorrow, and make it a better day for all. Come back to your Judeo-Christian covenant with the Lord and cry out in this time of Pentecost: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth." We need our God in all areas of our life!

Eucharistic Adoration

Regularly scheduled hours of Eucharistic Adoration have resumed.

We are happy to announce that the Adoration Hotline is now available. Make a note of this number: 320-484-7126. You can always check at that number for changes to the Adoration schedule (holidays, weather, etc). You will not be able to leave a message, however. Contact your shift coordinator with problems or questions.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Eric & Katie (Baysinger) Olson who recently celebrated the baptism of their son Edward Adalbert Olson at St Anastasia. Please keep them in your prayers at this special time.

A Whole New Look!

You will be seeing some changes in the look of our bulletin going into the future. Thanks to the generosity of our advertisers, we now have the capacity to print in color! We now also have access to a huge treasure trove of online resources for clip art, commentaries, prayers, news items, etc. The company that prints our bulletin—JS Paluch—wants also to acknowledge our advertisers for their cooperation and participation.

Congratulations!

Baptismal congratulations to Reuben Patrick Martin, son of Justin and Kasandra. Baptismal congratulations to Charlotte Adeline Garaghty, daughter of Breanna and Maxwell. May they be nurtured and grow in the faith of the Church by their parents, sponsors, family and this community of faith.

The Inexpressible Mystery

The God of the universe is mysterious. Science has not been able to solve the mystery of how the universe came into being or explain exactly what continues to give it creative energy and masterful design. No religion asserts that it has found words to name fully the ineffable mystery of God, for no matter what name we use, God always transcends our limited ability to understand. God is a mystery to be believed, not known. And yet, we Christians believe that our name for God best expresses that inexpressible mystery: God is the Most Holy Trinity of three persons united in a communion of love, pouring forth that creative, saving, sanctifying love into the world. Today's scriptures celebrate the mystery of the Trinity and give us clues for living that mystery in our lives.

Treasures From Our Tradition

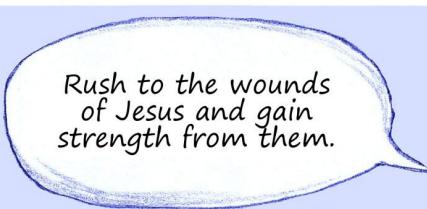

It is often heard that today's observance is an "idea feast," and that it is somewhat difficult to grasp its meaning. Other great solemnities, such as Christmas and Easter, have an easily grasped core. Yet, even though the Trinity is at the heart of our faith, firmly declared in the Creed since the Council of Nicea in 325, we are used to having people shrug and say, "Well, it's a mystery."

Perhaps it is more helpful to think of this as a "relationship feast," since it unveils our deepest identity. Dorothy Day was a great social reformer, pacifist, and ardent lover of the Trinity. When people told her that she would certainly be canonized one day (the process is indeed underway), she protested dismissively by remarking that people were raising a fuss just because she was not afraid to talk about God. She loved the Trinity, and treasured the traditional icon for the feast, also known as "The Hospitality of Abraham," depicting the three angelic beings seated at a table tilted toward the viewer and laden with bread and wine. For her, the Trinity revealed the heart of the Catholic life, three C's if you will: community, communication, and communion. That was not an "idea" for her, but what it means to be created in the image of the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Reaching Out

There has been a lot going on in Minneapolis this past week. The events that have transpired have left many families and children in need. Regardless of how you stand on the current issues, we are called to love and lend a helping hand to those in need.

We have a close contact with Missionaries of Charity in Minneapolis who mainly serve the Latino community and the families in need in that area. There will be a drop-off location in the front foyer of St. Anastasia Church for the coming weeks to support the Missionaries of Charity in their work. This will be an ongoing collection with our first delivery to Minneapolis happening this Friday. Please help as you are able.

Here are the items they are most in need of:

- Rice
- Maseca
- Tortillas
- Dry Pinto Beans
- Laundry Detergent
- Dish soap
- Hand Soap

Cash donations are also accepted and should be dropped off in the Parish Office. Checks can be made out to Missionaries of Charity.

Thank you for your generosity!

Our sponsor of the week is Regional Eye Center.

Please show your appreciation by patronizing their business.

Important Mailing

Important Changes at Mass

You should have received a letter this week regarding the new practices and procedures with which we must comply. If you have not received this letter please contact the parish office and we will send you one.

There is a strictly limited number of people allowed in the church at one time. There are specific seating arrangements. There will be only one access (the main front doors) to the church. Everyone will wait—six feet apart—to be guided to a seating area. At the end of mass people will leave one pew at a time. Ushers will help guide you through the new procedures.

These new practices are being enforced in every diocese.

The mailing will explain the new practices in detail so you can make your plans accordingly. We are excited to be able to celebrate the mass together again and want it to be as smooth as possible. Please read the mailing—Thank you!
