MAY

Grapes native to Europe, Sangiovese, for example, one of the primary grapes that is used for Chianti, are excellent for producing wine. There are stories of nineteenth century Italian immigrants coming to California with their grapevine cuttings, so they would be able to plant their own native grapes n this New World and have wine. These grapevine cuttings were precious reminders of the land, culture, and people that immigrants left behind and these cuttings, properly transplanted, cared for, and pruned, would provide life and happiness in this, the New World. And it turned out that California's climate, Napa Valley in particular, was ideal for growing grapes that would produce some of the world's finest wine.

We can image something of this when Jesus says that he is the Vine. In typical Johannine fashion, we have here no parable about the kingdom of God being like a vineyard. For the Fourth Gospel, Jesus is the Vine! He goes a step further to say that the Father is the vine grower.

Jesus reminds us of the vine grower's role. Not only does the vine grower ensure its viability, but he prunes branches to produce fruit, and cuts away those that do not produce any fruit. In a stark vision of the end time, Jesus takes yet another step to say that those branches that have been cut away will be thrown into the fire to be burned. Such apocalyptic images are rare in this gospel, though they appear more frequently in Matthew. As vine grower, the Father tends his precious vine much like the immigrant bringing native cuttings to the New World. Once transplanted, the real work begins.

Where are we in the metaphor? We are the branches, fully aware that no branch can produce fruit on its own. We must remain attached to the vine to bear fruit. So as not to be lopped off, we remain in Jesus.

His agrarian image is ancient, but easily applicable and comprehended. Anyone with experience in gardening or observing nature grasps the symbolism here. The metaphor is simple yet subline, and seems to be evidence of a good teacher. Living Liturgy, p. 118

During the Month of May, the Rosary will be prayed Twenty minutes before the weekend Masses.

Spring SCRIP Reminder

As you start to look toward the spring clean up, yard work, flower planting, building projects, etc. remember that St A's SCRIP program has you covered. SCRIP is available for Menards, Wal Mart, Ace Hardware, Amazon and other suppliers of spring necessities. Buying SCRIP is like buying a gift card you always get your full dollar's value on the card. And St A's gets a small rebate directly from the company. If you shop on line you don't have to worry about any personal information being compromised.

AND a portion of the profits generated by your purchases go to cover the cost of tuition for any student you designate participating in St A's School, Faith Formation or Kids Depot programs. If you do not designate a particular student, that share of the profits goes into the Education Fund to support on going education programs at St A's.

SCRIP is available in the parish office during regular business hours and after weekend masses. If you like, we can set you up with a regular order (weekly, e/o week, monthly—you choose). It can be a direct withdrawal from your account if you prefer. Questions? Call Jody at the parish office at 587-6507.

We do have Best Buy SCRIP on hand if you are ordering on line or going out of town for your electronic needs.

Renovations and Capital Campaign Update

We have completed a phase of renovations to our church with the addition of the audio/visual system. We are continuing to fine tune our understanding of the equipment and train volunteers into how to best use the equipment. The cost of this phase was $ 150,000. Thank you for your support to these improves.

The building committee is now looking at a second phase that will include the renovation of the sanctuary (altar area). We are looking at leveling off the sanctuary platform, adding a ramp for people to get into the sanctuary, and lightening the colors of the sanctuary. Second, we will also be looking at a light reduction material for the windows, to lessen the intense sunlight on the interior of the church. Third, we will also be studying the additional use of acoustical material to help the audio concerns for the building. And last, we will be looking at enhancing the lighting of the church with addition lamps, upgrading wiring, and replacing the dimming panel. Estimated costs: $ 500,000.00 Thank you for your ongoing support of our renovations.

Faith Formation

FEAST OF FAITH The Homily

The ambo, or pulpit, is a special place—it is the place for God's word. That is why it is not used for all the spoken words of the Mass, even important words like the collects and the blessing. The ambo is only used for the scripture readings, and for the homily and the prayer of the faithful.

The homily is part of the Liturgy of the Word. It flows from the readings we have just heard, and helps us to understand the way in which God is speaking to us today. The homily is not a lecture, a catechism lesson, or a speech. It is more like an exhortation; it has an urgency about it, for it calls us to find ourselves in the scripture, to live the faith we profess, to see our world by the light of the Gospel. The homily, in itself a response to God's word, demands a response from us. There are many styles of preaching and many ways to respond to the scriptures. But whether the homily is weak or strong, an open ear and an open heart can find in it an abundance of spiritual nourishment.

BEARING FRUIT

Few of us, even when we meditate on the image of the vine and branches, stop to really think about how God "prunes" us. For some there is the danger of thinking that we are already producing fruit for the kingdom, in deed and truth as John says, perhaps raising a family, being active in our parish, and so on. But even those branches which are bearing fruit, the Gospel tells us, can be pruned to produce still more. Today Saul, freshly "pruned" by his conversion, arrives in Jerusalem and meets resistance. Since he had been persecuting Christians, this was only natural. But even after he is accepted and begins to bear fruit, he meets further adversity, and his letters are filled with many accounts of how his trials "pruned" him to produce greater fruit for the kingdom. Like him, as long as we remain in Christ we will continue to bear fruit and, when the will of the Father determines it is time to prune us, the strength of the true vine must enable us to endure it.
