Luke 5:4

“Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.”

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 6, 2022

As we started to journey through Ordinary Time, we met Jesus beginning his public ministry. Today, we hear his call to his first disciples to follow him and companion him in his ministry. All three of the readings for this Sunday contains a story of a call: different people, in different circumstances, with different social and religious status, yet all are touched by the divine initiative. Isaiah, perhaps daydreaming, was in the Jerusalem temple; Paul, certainly persecuting, was on the way to Damascus; the fishermen, at the Lake of Gennesaret (the Sea of Galilee), were washing their nets.

In the gospel, Jesus is standing on the lakeside with a crowd pressing around him to hear the word of God. Significantly, Peter and his companions are not part of this crowd. They are tending to their nets after an unprofitable night’s fishing. Jesus gets into Simon’s boat, hauls this probably nonplussed man in with him, and puts out a short way from the shore to continue teaching the crowd. After that, Jesus addresses his words to Simon only, telling him to launch out into the deep and put down his nets for a catch. Something that Simon Peter had heard as he sat with Jesus must have made an impression, for he responds to Jesus as “Master,” and although he cannot resist reminding Jesus that their nets were empty the night before, in obedience to Jesus words he casts them into the water.

Then a great reversal happens, as it does so often in the gospels and as it will for all those who are obedient to Jesus. Empty nets become full to the breaking point, and Peter’s personal encounter with Jesus leads to the call of James and John to help with the catch; emptiness becomes fullness in not only one boat but two. Peter is as overwhelmed as the boats. He falls down at Jesus’ feet, now calling him “Lord.” Peter begs him to leave him because he is a sinner. We may admire this as Peter’s humble profession of his worthiness to associate with Jesus. But if we read our own experiences, could there not also be a fear of deep waters that Peter might be letting himself into, waters that would be less troubled if Jesus just went away and left the fishermen to their nets, empty or full? Are there times when we have said to God, “Why me?” when being asked to cope with this commitment, this vocation, this suffering?

Parents’ Meeting Recap: It was good to see so many parents last Sunday (January 30), we presented the following items and handed out a survey, asking for opinions and questions. If you would like more information and a survey please contact Bill Carlson, Fr. Paul, or Mrs. Jodzio. The items presented:

- ✦ School Statues: Facts and figures about current and past enrollment
- ✦ Goal: To support and grow our school
- ✦ Expand to 7th and 8th grade (stake holders input; financial, staff, and curriculum commitment; facilities; research plans to accomplish goal)
- ✦ Financial Support: Tuition increase of $150 - 1st child $3,040; 2nd child $2,840; 3rd child $2,640; 4th child $2440 - Fundraising: adding a Gala (committee forming)
- ✦ Family Engagement and Service: for our school to be successful and grow our students academically, socially, and faithfully we need to grow our support in all activities in the school and parish. Family Mass, at least once a month at the 10:30 weekend Mass time. Parent Engagement Plan: 8 hours of service to school or parish.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth. — Psalm 138:1

MASS INTENTIONS:

The Masses for the repose of souls is a time to pray for those who don't live out their afterlife in Heaven. It's for the departed souls resting in Purgatory, awaiting whatever comes next. It's believed in the Catholic faith that the soul will enter the purity of Heaven once it's completed its time in Purgatory. If you would like a Mass said for your loved ones please call the parish office at 587-6507.

Capital Campaign donations: Please write a separate check for your Capital Campaign donations. Please mark your envelope with Capital Campaign on it.

BIBLE STUDY: Please join us! We have begun an area faith bible study program centered around the Ascension Press "Bible in a Year" program outline, with Fr. Mike Schmitz and featuring Jeff Cavins reading. You may follow along in the daily readings of Ascension's Great Adventure Bible, and/or hear the podcast (about 20 min. each) and view the guided reading program at <https://ascensionpress.com>. We will have an informal gather-and-learn, Q & A bible study opportunity, led by one of our priests on the first and third Sunday of each month to discuss the previous two weeks of material covered. We will be meeting on Sunday, Feb. 6th (we will cover Jan. 24- Feb. 6 material) and Sunday, Feb. 23rd (we will cover Feb. 7-Feb. 23 material), in the Holy Family Church basement, Silver Lake (please enter back parking lot, basement doors) for a one hour session. This is a great opportunity to gather with others who are journeying through the bible and want to grow in their faith! You are free to attend as many studies as you are able, you can join any time, and are welcome to bring friends! For further questions, contact Bonnie Mohr 952.297.5892.

REBOOT! is a high-energy, 2 ½ hour renewal event led by world renowned speaker and TV host Chris Stefanick that is designed to bring a brand new energy and vitality to your life. The event has two parts: (1) It begins with an inspirational, high-energy unpacking of the genius of the heart of the Gospel, revealing its power and real beauty. The experience is fresh and compelling, and is like hearing the Gospel for the first time all over again! People commonly say: "THAT reminded me – all over again – why I ever even wanted to be a Christian, to be a Catholic!" There is a lot of laughter, and there are some real tears.

And, (2) It finishes strong with real-life, practical, "can-do" ways of applying the genius of the Gospel in everyday life. From prayer and spirituality, to work, dating, marriage, parenting, health and more: there is no part of a person's life that will be left untouched.

At St A's: April 20, 7-9pm, cost $39 per person. Group rate $30 per person with order of at least 4.

THEOPHANIES

Today's readings recount three theophanies, or particular manifestations of God's presence. The prophet Isaiah is caught up in a dramatic scene of heavenly worship, with a royal throne, burning embers, and seraphim singing, "Holy, holy, holy." Isaiah is overwhelmed. In the responsorial psalm, the assembly adds its own worship to that of the seraphim: "In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord" (Psalm 138:1).

Paul reminds the Corinthians of his own experience of a post-Resurrection appearance of the Lord, making him an apostle, but one "born abnormally" (1 Corinthians 15:8), since he had no acquaintance with the earthly Jesus. The first of those who did know the earthly Jesus were surprised by fishing advice from the teacher who had commandeered Simon's boat, resulting in an extraordinary catch. Although less colorful than those of Isaiah or Paul, this theophany was just as overwhelming.

COMMON CUP MINISTRIES REP

We are in need of a person or a couple people to be a representative for our parish on the Common Cup board. If you are interested in this please let us know. Diane Sweely will be retiring from this position in March and if you would like to go with her to the February or March meetings she would love to take you along. The commitment for this is a meeting once a month on the 3rd Monday of the month at Noon. They take turns having the meeting at the different churches. We thank Diane for her service.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

How can I come to rely more on heavenly grace?
