GLORIFYING GOD IN A LOUD VOICE.

Luke 17:15

9 2022
OCTOBER

TWENTY-EIGHTH
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Congratulations to our 9th Graders in receiving the outpouring of the Holy Spirit may they act upon the gifts of the Holy Spirit received this day!

Mia Cano, Isabelle Crow, Kamare Davis, Carson Gonzalez, Isabelle Heining, Ava Knorr, Lilah Laidlaw, Riley Miller, Griffin Nepl, Lily Prellwitz, Parker Root, Benjamin Schroepfer, Aidan Seay, Hannah Visser, Daniel Wehseler, Bella Wenzel, Sophia Withers

Today's gospel celebrates gratitude. If we look at the details of the story; however, we notice that there is more to this seemingly simple narrative. We already know Luke's emphasis on upholding and including people who are often oppressed and marginalized, so it should not be too surprising that this story of the cleansing of the ten lepers lived in exile from the rest of society, even standing "at a distance" from Jesus when they called to him. Already there is an image of Jesus living in relationship with people who are often ignored.

But there is another level of inclusion and exclusion in this story. Jesus comments that only a foreigner - a Samaritan - has returned to give thanks after being healed. We know that in Jesus' time, Jews and Samaritans generally did not have the best relationship with each other, making it almost unheard of that a Samaritan would be the one who is lauded for his gratitude. It is all the more surprising, then, when Jesus tells the healed person, "Your faith has saved you." Jesus does not just say, "You are healed," but instead promises salvation. Jesus lauds the faith of the one who might typically be regarded as faithless. For Luke, faith is intimately connected with salvation, and salvation is promised to even the "outsider" of the day.

The first reading gives us a parallel story to the gospel. Namaan is cleansed of his leprosy in a foreshadowing of baptism by the prophet Elisha. Once healed, Namaan is filled with gratitude and tries to thank him with a gift. Elisha refuse, and Namaan turns his gratitude into faith in Elisha's God.

As Paul proclaims in today's second reading, "The word of God is not chained" to human understanding. God's love transcends the human barriers we create. Let us celebrate this reality. In the words of the psalmist, may we "Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous deeds." Living Liturgy, pp. 229-230

The process of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA), those wanting to enter into the Catholic Church formally, as well as those that would like to have a deeper understanding of the church will begin Sunday, October 9th. All Sessions will be held in the Hospitality Area at 5:30 PM on Sunday evenings unless stated differently.

If we have died with Christ Jesus we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him.

Month of the Rosary

The month of October is dedicated to the most Holy Rosary. The rosary is a beautiful prayer that helps us meditate on the life of Jesus. I encourage you to pray the rosary as a family, especially during this month.

During the month of, October we heighten our awareness of the sacredness of human life, from the moment of conception until death. The Gospel is clear in calling each of us to promote a culture of life. What are we doing to support life and the human dignity of those people we live and work with each day?

Friday, October 7th. Marathon Day!

Without you we wouldn't have young people walking these halls each week, excited to learn and wanting to go somewhere. Knowing they feel valued here by their teachers and classmates. And, realizing Jesus was central to that experience in building their character and guiding their behavior at some level for the rest of their lives. We strongly believe your investment is worth it and tremendously thank you!

Every dollar donated goes directly to the school. We are still accepting donations and welcome you to visit the school to see your dollars in action through activities in the classroom and throughout the learning environment. Contact Principal Jodzio to learn more. principal@stanastasia.net
