

*"One does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes forth
from the mouth of God."*

MATTHEW 4:4

Matthew moves from the story of Jesus' baptism right to his journey into the desert. Other translations use the term "wilderness." The desert can quite literally be a wild space. Birds of prey fly freely. The hot sun scorches. Water and food are likely scarce, if available at all. The scene Jesus now finds himself in stands in stark contrast to the day of his baptism when his beloved John the Baptist stood with him in the flowing waters of the Jordan River.

The sequence of events reminds us how quickly life can change. We can move from a spiritual high to a devastating low without much warning. No matter where we find ourselves, the Spirit of God never leaves our side. Notice what is not said in this passage. Nowhere does it say the Spirit leaves Jesus alone with the devil. Just like in the waters of baptism, God's Spirit remains with Jesus - and each of us - during our times in the wilderness.

Jesus demonstrates his sinlessness in this gospel as he responds to the devil's temptations with strength and confidence, rebuffing his advances without missing a beat. These temptations are perhaps relatable; all of them encourage Jesus to put something - food, safety, power - ahead of his relationship with God. The middle temptation is particularly chilling, as we hear the devil himself quote scripture to support a twisted agenda that is not of God. This one can be confusing; it seems that the devil is asking Jesus to trust in God, which is surely a good thing. But trusting in God does not mean treating God like a vending machine that will dispense favors at our command; in fact, telling God what he ought to do for us stands in direct opposition to true trust in his providence. Fortunately, Jesus knows better than the devil's most clever tricks; his relationship with God is built on a loving trust that will carry him all the way to the cross.

Jesus' response to the devil stands in contrast to Adam and Eve's; he outsmarts temptation at every turn where their naiveté caused them to cave immediately. Unfortunately, this is not enough to undo the consequence of sin; this work will be continued all the way to Calvary. Through Adam we inherit sin and death; from Jesus we inherit freedom and life.

The temptations the devil throws at Jesus are versions of those we encounter all the time. Food and power and security are constantly present in our lives; they are not bad in and of themselves, but when we allow them to take the place in our hearts that ought to belong only to God, they keep us from living the fullness of life that comes only from union with God.

The devil puts Jesus, in all his humanity, to the test in today's gospel. Imagine how Jesus must have felt after forty days and forty nights of fasting. The gospel writer's description that "afterwards he was hungry" is surely the understatement of the year! Think about how you felt on Ash Wednesday if you observed a day of fasting. Perhaps you moved slower or found yourself getting irritated more quickly than usual. Our bodies need fuel to function. Times of fasting force us to pay attention to our bodies - and the God who created them. Jesus placed all his trust in God during these forty days of fasting. May we do the same as we observe the Lenten practice. Living Liturgy, p. 69

CATHOLIC PRAYER CORNER

Prayer during Lent

Holy God, now is the acceptable time to return to you. As we walk the path of these forty days, may we turn away from sin and embrace a life of goodness and truth. Strengthen us on our Lenten journey and keep us focused on the cross and resurrection of your Son, our Savior and Redeemer. He is Lord forever and ever. Amen.

What is the Light of the World Retreat?

The Light of the World Lenten Retreat is an immersive weekend retreat experience where participants personally encounter Christ through the presentation of the kerygma - the basic gospel message. We will be holding this retreat from March 24-27: Friday, 7-9:30pm, Saturday, 8am-7pm, Sunday 8am-7pm, and Monday 6:30-9pm at St. Anastasia. The Light of the World Retreat is boldly Catholic, and it is completely faithful to the magisterium of the Roman Catholic Church. Parish-based, the retreat is born, raised, and run in your parish. Don't wait for the "experts." They're already in your pews, they just don't know it yet. To be honest, the Light of the World Retreat has no "secret ingredient." It's about helping your parish tap into the tried and true method of evangelization that the Lord Himself has established: the kerygma. Evangelization isn't just for the "experts." All disciples have a responsibility to evangelize. Retreatants access the storehouse of graces that are available to them in the Church through a renewal of the Sacraments during the Light of the World Retreat weekend. Sign-up! Limited Space.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

Lent

One of the liturgical reforms mandated at the Second Vatican Council was that the focus of the season of Lent should be restored as a time of preparation for—or renewal of—baptism. The bishops at the Council were aware of the fact that the origins of Lent as a distinctive liturgical season lay in the early centuries when the Church celebrated the sacraments of Christian initiation only once a year, at the Easter Vigil. In order to prepare those who were to receive those sacraments, a special period of preparation (eventually lasting forty days) gradually developed.

By the time of the Second Vatican Council, the initiatory character of Lent had long been forgotten, and it had become simply a time of penance focused on individual spiritual renewal. The introduction of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults and the revision of the Lectionary after the Council have changed all of that. Now the Sunday scripture readings during Lent are very carefully selected with an eye to the journey of those preparing to be initiated at the Easter Vigil. Once again, the entire community is asked to undergo penance in solidarity with the candidates for Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.

Thus, in order to appreciate fully the meaning of the readings during this season, the “filter” through which they must be heard is always the knowledge that we are helping to prepare our sisters and brothers in the catechumenate for their initiation at the Easter Vigil.

The Diocese of New Ulm has clearance to cablecast Finding God Through Faith and Reason on HCVN public access, channel 10, at 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D., lends insight into evidence gathered from the fields of contemporary philosophy and physics, which supports proof for the existence of God. The universe itself connotes the existence of a Creator, and the principle of intelligent design leads to a logical conclusion about the nature of God.

School News

Each St. Anastasia student has artwork displayed at the Hutchinson Center for the Arts for the Youth Art Show. The art show runs February 15-March 3. This is an elementary school art show and all of the local schools participate. Stop in to see all of the wonderful masterpieces!

First graders learned the art of creating an animal report, the old fashion way by checking out animal books from the school library. They read the book for two days and took notes in a journal. They revised the story they read. Then they typed their report into a google document using their Chromebooks. They learned how to share a google document with their teacher. The following day they made a cover page. They searched online for a picture of their animal and inserted it into another google document. It was shared again and the whole report was printed. Once reports were complete they read them to the class. Our students experience public speaking at the youngest of age so that they are well prepared for their future.

Nice work First Graders!
