

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!"
- Lk 24:33-34

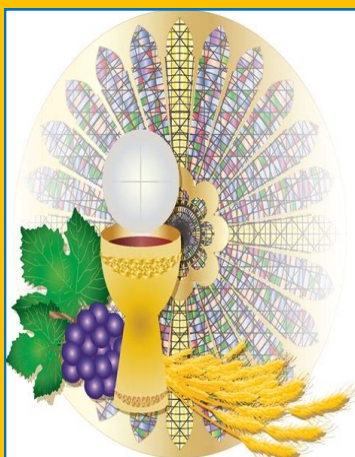

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

Cleopas and his companion pose a profound question after their encounter with the risen Christ: "Were not our hearts burning within us?" The two disciples feel the flames of faith within their very beings as they walk and talk with Jesus along the road to Emmaus. Their experience reminds us that discipleship is meant to be a full body experience. Following Christ attunes our various senses to the holy in every day life.

When is the last time you felt your heart burning within you? Find those spaces where your heart burns and dwell there. As theologian Howard Thurman says, "Don't ask what the world needs. Ask what makes you come alive, and go do it. Because what the world needs is more people who have come alive." The Easter season gifts us with fifty days to reflect on our calling to be disciples of the risen Christ. Use this time to discern the people, places, work, and social causes that make you come alive.

Discipleship is best lived out in community. Jesus sends us out to share the good news together. Cleopas and his companion debate and discuss all that has taken place over the last few days. They bounce ideas off each other. Perhaps they scheme their next steps. Who are your discipleship companions? In what ways can our church community support our newest companions - those who were received into the church at the Easter Vigil? Together the Body of Christ can spread Easter hope to the ends of the earth. Living Liturgy, p. 113

The Diocese of New Ulm has clearance to cablecast Finding God Through Faith and Reason on HCVN public access, channel 10, at 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D., lends insight into evidence gathered from the fields of contemporary philosophy and physics, which supports proof for the existence of God. The universe itself connotes the existence of a Creator, and the principle of intelligent design leads to a logical conclusion about the nature of God.
