

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

“God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” - Jn 3:16

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

We can never know the fullness of our almighty God. But today's readings point to a crucial aspect of the divine human relationship: our triune God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our God dwells with us always. Our God is not one to stay up in the clouds. Just the opposite. In today's first reading, Moses encounters the Lord coming down from the clouds. The Lord stands close enough to have a conversation with Moses. Many of us wish the Lord would speak as clearly and directly to us. Frustration can arise in prayer when we do not receive the clarity desired from God. Yet while our divine dialogue may look different than Moses', God assures us that God will be with us always until the end of time.

In today's gospel, we receive further assurance of God's presence. Out of great love for us, God sent God's only son to save the world. We spent the last few months of Lent and Easter hearing stories of Jesus' time on earth, both before and after his death on the cross. Even death cannot separate us from God.

Then last week we celebrated the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, breathed upon the earliest disciples by Christ himself, who continues to be our advocate and guide. Our triune God dwells with us. St. Paul sums this blessing up well in today's second reading: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." Living Liturgy, p. 143

Youth Projects

We are wondering if there are any parishioners in need of any help with projects, between now and the end of summer. We have groups of youth who are willing and looking for service projects! We would love to have them come, help wherever there may be a need. Please, let Jake know if you might have a service opportunity for our youth this summer. Thanks!

The Diocese of New Ulm has clearance to cablecast Crossing the Goal: Marks of a True Christian on HCVN public access, channel 10, at 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. Former NFL player and coach Danny Abramowicz welcomes fellow CROSSING THE GOAL team members Brian Patrick, Curtis Martin, and Peter Herbeck (a native of New Ulm and currently the vice president and director of missions for Renewal Ministries) to a just-for-men discussion on the Marks of a True Christian. Gala auction item: Principal for a Day

Elin Spors was our Principal for a Day. She had a fun filled day greeting students as they came into school, helping with a fire drill, sharing daily announcements, thanking volunteers and fixing a door with Father Paul and Mr. Skoog. She was able to get into the classrooms as a mystery reader for Kindergarten and deliver a birthday gift from the principal to two other students. She also thanked each of the teachers for their hard work and gave them a "PAYDAY" (candy bar).

Elin recommends this job to others and will be a great advocate for next year's Gala.

St. Anastasia and Kids' Depot students will participate in a float for Water Carnival. Theme: Roots to Wings, Sunday, June 18th. Meet at 12:30 pm at the parade line up by the river (exact location tbd). See flyer emailed to families for more information.

We are hiring! Position: Middle School teacher - Qualifications: Valid Minnesota teaching license, 5-8th gr experience preferred. For details contact Principal Jodzio at principal@stanastasia.net.
