

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. - Mk 4:39

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPi

The disciples took Jesus in the boat "just as he was." The Son of God had just come off of a full day of teaching crowds of people on the shore. It seems safe to assume that Jesus gave his whole self to those teaching sessions, and so was probably quite tired by the time evening rolled around. In the same day, the Son of God can be both energized and exhausted. He is fully human, after all. We can imagine Jesus moving more slowly as the day drew on. Maybe his eyelids got heavy. Maybe he let out more than a few yawns. The gospel writers include for a reason the details that the disciples took Jesus with them on the boat "just as he was." Our holiest book affirms that it is okay to be just as we are. We need not put on a show for God. Like Jesus, we can be tired when we are tired. We can rest when we need to rest.

By calming the storm, Jesus shows his power over creation. The Son of God can calm the chaos. The question facing the disciples is: will they trust Jesus to do so? Their fear seems stronger than their faith in various gospel stories, including this one. What might it take for disciples of today to truly trust in God's power to save?

Today's gospel can be summed up in one profound line: Jesus is present in the storm. From the literal storm on the sea to the storms in our lives, Jesus never leaves us to face our perils alone.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS: Waking God

A show of hands, ladies and gentlemen. Have any of you been given the silent treatment and had absolutely no idea why?

On the flipside, have any of you have sworn you're not going to demean yourself by explaining, for the thousandth time, that you need extra help with the kids before soccer practice, or that you feel ignored when your spouse doesn't ask how your day went?

But sadly, love doesn't give you the ability to read minds. And in the end, we learn the lesson again and again, we have to verbalize our feelings, our needs, our wants. Expecting your partner to anticipate your needs is guaranteed to end badly.

It's the same with God, even though, oddly enough, He does have the ability to read minds. But He still desires us to explain ourselves to Him, doesn't He? "I'm feeling scared of this." "I'm really worried about that." "God, I think I need x, y and z. Help me. Please."

Jesus slept on that boat, as it was tossed and turned by the waves, until his disciples woke him. "Why were you sleeping?" they ask. Well, geniuses, he was sleeping because they hadn't woken him up yet. They had wasted time cowering in fear, waiting for him to act. They gave him the silent treatment and they didn't even know it.

God doesn't desire us to verbalize our needs as a way of keeping us submissive. He's not that petty. What He desires is the communication — that's what really counts. That act of opening yourself up, of becoming vulnerable, of relying on Him, trusting Him. If it feels like God is asleep in your life, ask yourself this, have you tried waking Him up?

Pie in the Park 2024

Pie in the Park - Sponsored by Edward Jones is back for 2024 on July 22nd in Library Square in Hutchinson. An annual fundraiser taking place during Hutchinson's "Music in the Park" Summer Series that we look forward to every year, mostly because of the delicious pies that get donated to us to sell. Not only would we love to see you at this event, but we would also greatly appreciate your generosity of time.

We rely on the donation of desserts (pie and ice cream) and volunteers to make Pie in the Park a success. In 2024, we need at least 35 pies and 7 gallons of ice cream to ensure that everyone gets their favorite dessert. But also, about 10 people to work from 4:30pm-8:30pm in Library Square to prep and serve pie, scoop ice cream, distribute drinks, and help to keep our tables and supplies clean. If you'd like to sign up as a "Dessert Donor" or "Pie in the Park" Volunteer, follow this link: <https://crhfh.charityproud.org/VolunteerRegistration/Calendar>

If you won't be able to attend Pie in the Park, but still want to show your support for our 2024 Habitat Homes Projects, you can follow this link to make a Financial Donation: <https://www.crhfh.org/donate/>

Adoration Moments

"We have come to do Him homage."... Those words, spoken by the Magi as they searched for the infant Jesus, resound through the centuries to be echoed in the heart of every person who makes a visit to the Blessed Sacrament (Adoration in the Chapel). The presence of our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is as real today as the infant Jesus was to the Wise Men who sought Him by following a star rising in the East. As Pope John Paul II affirms in his Encyclical of the Eucharist- "the gaze of the Church is constantly turned to our Lord, present in the Sacrament of the Altar, in which we discover the full manifestation of His boundless Love"
